

Autumn Reading Bingo

'There are many ways to enlarge your child's world. Love of books is best of all.'

Jacqueline Kennedy

During autumn half term, try and complete our autumn reading bingo challenge. When you've read a book, write the title and author in the box. Share your completed bingo cards with us on Twitter @ChrissiesSpeke.

Remember to sign up at www.readliverpool.co.uk to access free, high quality texts.

| | | |
|--|---|--|
| Read a book outside. | Read a poem or a book about autumn. | Read under a blanket. |
| Read in your pj's. |  | Read a book that will teach you something new. |
| Read to a younger child or a cuddly toy. | Read with a torch. |  Reading gives us someplace to go when we have to stay where we are. -Mason Cooley |

Reminder – during the holidays, you can continue to access Purple Mash, Spelling Shed and Maths Shed.

Happy Half Term!