

Possessive Apostrophes

Work with a partner to complete the table below, showing how to use apostrophes for possession. One example has been done for you.

possession	possessive apostrophe
the eyes of the fox	the fox's eyes the bird's wings
the trees of the forest the animal's cry
the face of the creature the tail of the fox
	the woodland's edge

Next, write your own sentence about Fox and Magpie in the woods, using an apostrophe to show that something belongs.
